JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY,
DALLAS, TEXAS, 11/22/63
MISCELLANEOUS - INFORMATION CONCERNING

OO - DALLAS

b7c

In accordance with your previous authorization, and after consultation with SA [REDACTED], on 11/4/76, I was interviewed by Dallas Times Herald Investigative Reporter HUGH AYERSWORTH concerning the investigation of captioned case and my participation in same. Requested information concerning my personal background and a photograph of myself were furnished to him together with the fact I am retiring effective 12/31/76.

No discussion was had concerning information not known to be available through public records. No discussion was had concerning sensitive investigative techniques, identity of informants, ongoing investigations or information received from another agency.

On 11/5/76 Dallas Times Herald Photographer WAYNE HEDVICKA was permitted to photograph the file cabinets containing the numerous volumes of files relating to the KENNEDY ASSASSINATION Investigation with the writer standing by same. No photographs were permitted where any of the contents of the files were visible. Such photographs were permitted after clearance from ASAC GLEN D. ROSENQUIST.

ACTION: File.
